○ 20 The Registrar shall then divide the total number of valid papers by a number exceeding by one, the number of vacancies to be filled. The result increased by one (any fractional remainder being disregarded) shall be the number of votes sufficient to secure the election of a candidate. This number is hereinafter called the "quota"

○ 21 If at the end of any count the number of votes to a candidate is equal to or greater than the quota, that candidate shall thereupon be elected.

○ 22 (1) If at the end of any count the number of votes credited to a candidate is greater than the quota, the surplus shall be transferred, as in this Ordinance provided, to the continuing candidates for whom the next available preferences have been recorded on the voting papers in the parcel or sub-parcel last received by the elected candidate.

(2) (a) If more than one candidate has a surplus, the largest surplus shall be first dealt with

(b) If two or more candidates have each an equal surplus, the surplus of the candidate with the greatest number of votes at the first count at which the candidates in question have an unequal number of votes shall be first dealt with. When the numbers of votes credited to such candidates are equal at all counts, the Registrar shall determine by lot which surplus he will first deal with.

(3) The Registrar need not transfer a surplus when that surplus, together with any other surplus not transferred, is less than the difference—

(a) Between the votes of the candidate lowest on the poll and the votes of the next highest candidate or

(b) between the total of the votes of the two or more candidates lowest on the poll and the votes of the next highest candidate provided that the exclusion from the poll of the aforesaid two or more candidates lowest on the poll shall not reduce the number of continuing candidates below the number of vacancies remaining to be filled.

(b) If the votes credited to an elected candidate consist of original and transferred votes, or of transferred votes only the Registrar shall examine the papers contained in the sub-parcel last received by the elected candidate whose surplus is to be transferred.

(c) In either case the Registrar shall sort the transferable papers into sub-parcels according to the next available preferences recorded thereon, shall make a separate sub-parcel of the non-transferable papers and shall ascertain the number of papers in each sub-parcel of non-transferable papers.

(5) If the total number of papers in the sub-parcels of transferable papers is equal to or less than the surplus, the Registrar shall transfer the whole of each sub-parcel of transferable papers to the continuing candidate indicated thereon as the electors' next available preference, and shall set aside as a separate parcel so many of the non-transferable papers as are not required for the quota of the elected candidate. The particular papers set aside shall be those last filed in the parcel of non-transferable papers.

(6) (a) If the total number of transferable papers is greater than the surplus, the Registrar shall transfer from each sub-parcel of transferable papers to the continuing candidate indicated thereon as the electors' next available preference the number of papers which bears the same proportion to the number of papers in the sub-parcels as the surplus bears to the total number of transferable papers,

(b) The number of papers to be transferred from each sub-parcel shall be ascertained by multiplying the number of papers in the sub-parcel by the surplus and dividing the result by the total number of transferable papers. A note shall be made of fractional part, if any of each number so ascertained.

(c) If owing to the existence of such fractional parts, the number of papers to be transferred is less than the surplus, so many of these fractional parts taken in the order of their magnitude, beginning with the largest, as are necessary to make the total number of papers to be transferred equal to the surplus shall be reckoned as of the value of unity and the remaining fractional parts shall be ignored.

(d) If two or more fractional parts are of equal magnitude, that fractional part shall be deemed to be the largest which arises from the largest sub-parcel, and if the sub-parcels in question are equal in size, the fractional part credited to the candidate with the greatest number of votes at the first count at which the candidates in question have an unequal number of votes shall be deemed to be the largest. When the number of votes credited to such candidates are equal at all counts, the Registrar shall determine by lot which fractional part shall be deemed to be the largest,

- (e) The particular papers transferred from each sub-parcel shall be those last filed in the sub-parcel and each paper so transferred shall be marked in such a manner as to indicate the count at which the transfer took place.

○ 28 (1) If at the end of any count no candidate has a surplus or if any existing surplus need not be and is not transferred, and one or more vacancies remain to be filled—

- (a) the Registrar shall exclude from the poll the candidate lowest on the poll

- (b) if the total of the votes of the two or more candidates lowest on the poll together with any surplus not transferred is less than the number of votes credited to the next highest candidate the Registrar may at the same count exclude the aforesaid two or more candidates lowest on the poll, provided that the exclusion of these candidates shall not reduce the number of continuing candidates below the number of vacancies remaining to be filled.

(2) If when a candidate has to be excluded, two or more candidates have each the same number of votes and are lowest on the poll, the candidate with the lowest number of votes at the first count at which the candidates in question have an unequal number of votes shall be excluded, and when the numbers of votes credited to these candidates are equal at all counts, the Registrar shall determine by lot who shall be excluded.

(3) Upon the exclusion of any candidate, the Registrar save as hereinafter provided, shall examine all the papers credited to that candidate shall sort the transferable papers into sub-parcels according to the next available preferences recorded thereon for continuing candidates shall transfer each sub-parcel to the candidate for whom that preference is recorded and shall set aside as a separate sub-parcel the non-transferable papers.

○ 24 (1) If at the end of any count, the number of elected candidates is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, no further transfer of votes shall be made.

(2) If on the exclusion of a candidate or candidates the number of the then continuing candidates is equal to the number of vacancies unfilled the continuing candidates shall thereon be elected, and no further transfer of votes shall be made

○ 25 The order of priority of election or elected members shall be the order in which they are severally elected. If at the end of any count two or more candidates are elected, the order of priority shall be according to the number of votes credited to such candidates beginning with the greatest.

○ 26 (1) Whenever any transfer is made each sub-parcel of papers transferred shall be placed on the top of the parcel, if any of papers of the candidate to whom the transfer is made and that candidate shall be credited with a number of votes equal to the number of papers transferred to him.

(2) Non-transferable papers (except such as in the transfer of a surplus may be required for the quota of the elected candidate) shall be set aside as a separate parcel together with any parcel of non-transferable papers already set aside.

(3) On the transfer of the surplus of an elected candidate, all papers not transferred to continuing candidates and not set aside as provided in the preceding paragraph, shall be placed together in one parcel as the quota of the elected candidate and the parcel shall be marked with the name of the elected candidate.

○ 27 After the scrutiny is completed, the Registrar shall forthwith report to the Vice-Chancellor the result of the scrutiny

○ 28 On the result of the election being reported as aforesaid, the results of the scrutiny showing for each candidate the number of first votes obtained and the successive additions to or subtractions from the number till the candidate was excluded or elected, shall be put up on the Notice Board by the Registrar and the voting papers shall be destroyed.

9. A scholar leaving his school at the end of the school session or who is permitted to leave his school during the currency of the session shall, on payment of all dues, receive an authenticated copy of the scholar's register up-to-date. A duplicate copy may be issued if the headmaster is satisfied that the original is lost but it shall always be so marked. *12. When a scholar has been expelled or rusticated with the sanction of the Head of the Education Department, the fact shall be communicated Rules for Paper-setters, Moderators and Examiners.(a) Rules for Paper setters.

1 Questions should aim at testing the ability of a candidate (a) to understand a topic, (b) to apply his knowledge to solving practical problems and not merely at testing his ability to reproduce answers which have been given to him in notes or learnt from a book.

2. In question papers on languages, direct questions involving the work of memory rather than of intelligence and questions requiring explanations with reference to context should be discouraged.

3 In question papers on modern Indian languages, the medium of questions and answers required should be that particular language and not the English language. For instance, all questions in Urdu, Hindi should be in Urdu, Hindi respectively and candidates should be required to write their answers in the respective vernaculars in which they are being examined.

4 In languages papers, the question in essay-writing should definitely state the topics of essays and the kind of people for whom the answer is to be written. It should be stated if the essay is meant for the public or for literary people or is to be addressed to a definite person such as fellow-students or parents.

5 Every part of every question shall be strictly comprised within the prescribed course of study

6. Every part of every question shall be clear and definite in language as also in regard to the nature of the answers required of the candidates.

7 The question paper shall be fairly distributed over the whole course of study and not concentrated on any one or a few portions only

8. At least twenty-five per cent more questions shall be set than what the candidates are required to answer

9 The standard of the question paper as a whole shall not substantially vary from one year to the next. If the standard is desired to be altered, such change shall be spread over several years and not made suddenly in any one year: the greater the change, the longer being the period of such adjustment.

10 In languages the questions on text-books for explanation shall have several alternative passages.

11 In question papers in languages the paper-setter shall in a separate note give reference to the pages of the text-books from which extracts have been taken and the moderator shall check all such extracts and destroy the note.

12 In Classical and European languages, not more than fifty per cent and not less than twenty-five per cent of the total marks in the paper on the prescribed book shall be assigned to translation.

13 In Classical and Modern Indian and European Languages the medium of answering questions shall be deemed to be either English or the languages with which the question is concerned, at the option of the candidate, unless the medium is specifically mentioned in the question itself.

14 No question shall be put at any examination calling for a declaration of religious belief on the part of the candidate, and no answer given by any candidate shall, in allotting marks be objected to, on the ground of its giving expression to any particular form of religious belief.

15 The actual answering of questions should take half an hour less than the time allotted to the candidates for the paper. The remaining half hour should be allowed for reading the question paper carefully and for revising the answers.

16. In setting a question paper abbreviations of all kinds except those in special subjects should be avoided.

17 If the Moderation Board is entirely dissatisfied with the question paper set, it may either call upon the paper-setter to set a fresh paper or it may itself set a fresh paper. In the latter case the paper-setter will receive no remuneration for setting the paper.

(b) Rules for Moderators.

1 The Moderator shall see that the rules for paper setting are strictly followed, and shall make no alteration in the question paper except where it has violated the rules for paper-setting.

2. The Moderator shall return the question paper to the Registrar quite ready for the Press, all corrections and alterations being clearly and legibly made.

The Moderator shall hand over to the Registrar along with the question paper all instructions regarding the supply to the candidate of graph papers, etc., for use in examination.

(c) Rules relating to Examiners.

1 Not more than one examiner shall ordinarily be appointed from any one recognised institution in the same paper at one examination.

2 In the case of papers where more than one examiner is appointed, all co-examiners shall conform to the standard of the head examiner. The head examiner should send detailed instructions for the marking of papers to each sub-examiner with the paper set, so that sub-examiners may know what is required before they begin correcting papers.

3 If an examiner is unable to mark the answer-books after setting the question paper he shall be entitled to only half the amount of the fees for paper-setting, the other half being paid to the examiner who marks the answer-books for him.

4 If during the course of examination any examiner is for any cause incapable of acting as such, the Vice-Chancellor shall appoint an examiner to fill the vacancy.

5 For all questions requiring descriptive answers, candidates should be required to write outlines. Marks should be deducted if an answer is not preceded by an outline or does not follow the outline. This should be specially required for questions in the form of essays.

The duties, emoluments and conditions of service of University Teachers shall be prescribed in the Ordinances.

○ 857 These Ordinances shall apply to all permanent whole-time servants of the University who are not allowed vacations.

○ 858 Leave is earned by duty only

○ 859 Leave cannot be claimed as of right. When the exigencies of the University service so require, discretion to refuse or revoke leave of any description is reserved to the authority empowered to grant it.

○ 860 All orders recalling a servant to duty before the expiry of his leave should state whether the return to duty is optional or compulsory. If it is compulsory the servant shall be entitled to travelling allowance to Japur but will get leave salary up to the date he joins his post.

○ 861. A servant who remains absent after the expiry of his leave is not entitled to leave salary during the period of such absence. Wilful absence from duty after the expiry of leave involves forfeiture of appointment.

○ 862 The power of granting leave will rest with the Syndicate. In regard to the clerical and menial staff the Syndicate may delegate its powers to the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar

○ 868 For every servant a service-book or service roll and leave account shall be maintained by the University in the form in which they are maintained in Government offices, and the Registrar shall have them kept up-to-date.

○ 864 Leave may be of the following kinds which may be combined with each other subject to limits laid down in these Ordinances:—

Note 2—"Pay" means substantive pay and does not include acting allowance.

○ 865 The leave on full pay which a servant earns is one-twelfth of the period he remains on duty. He also earns leave on half pay equal to one-twelfth of the period spent on duty. A servant on entering service must put in at least twelve months service before he can be granted leave mentioned in clauses (i) and (ii) of Ordinance 364

○ 866 It will be at the discretion of the sanctioning authority to grant leave on half pay even if leave on full pay is due, if it is necessary to do so in the interests of the University

○ 867 The maximum period of leave on full pay which a servant can take at any one time either separately or in combination with any other leave is four months.

○ 868 The maximum period of leave with allowance (on full and half pay) which a servant can take at any one time is two years. This period may be extended by six months if the extension of leave is granted on quarter pay on medical certificate under Ordinance 370.

○ 878 The amount of casual leave granted to an individual in a calendar year shall not exceed 15 days.

○ 874 Casual leave may be taken in one or more instalments, as the applicant desires, but shall not ordinarily exceed 10 days at a time.

Note.—If casual leave is taken either between two holidays or both at the beginning and end of holidays, the total period of absence shall be treated as leave.

○ 876 Servants belonging to the mental establishment may be granted leave under the preceding Ordinances only so far as it can be done without imposing any extra cost upon the University. The leave salary of the absence must not exceed what remains from his pay after provision has been made for efficient discharge of his duties. When the period of leave does not exceed one month in a year and the Registrar is satisfied that the leave is urgently required, extra expenditure up to a limit of half the pay of the post may be incurred.

NOTE.—“Full salary” means the salary which the permanent incumbent may be drawing at the time of his proceeding on leave, together with such graded increments as may fall due in course of time during the period of leave.

- 2 Subject to the previous sanction of the Vice-Chancellor the Registrar shall according to the nature and importance of the work, decide whether an extra hand is or is not necessary to carry on University work and shall also determine the amount of the salary of the extra hand, if any and the allowance to be allowed to one or more members of the permanent staff who may be required to carry on University work during the period of absence on leave of the permanent incumbent.
